

We need a VARIETY of beige, tan and brown tones, Tea dying and using brown and tan shades of Rit-type dye is fine. Choose even (not mottled) colors that look like healthy skin tones. The color should be light enough that permanent fabric markers will show on it.

- Supplies:
- 12" x 17" piece of tracing paper (for your pattern) & a pencil
 - 1/3 yard of 36" or 45" woven cotton or poly/cotton in skin tones
 - Sewing thread to match fabric
 - Polyester stuffing

Directions

1. Trace Cutting line of pattern onto paper to make your pattern. Match A to A and B to B to make a one piece pattern of a body outline.
2. Cut out two doll bodies.
3. With correct sides together, using a 1/4" seam allowance and small stitches, sew around the body, leaving one side open as marked on the pattern.
4. Clip all curves. Turn.
5. Stuff firmly, but not so tightly that the doll's limbs cannot move. Hand stitch the opening closed.
